

We wanted to dedicate our yearbook to someone who was gorgeously beautiful, possessed a sparkling personality, had a witty sense of humor and never gave any homework. Unfortunately we could not find a suitable candidate. However, a consensus revealed that Mr. Cornacchioli came the closest.

As a teacher Mr. Cornacchioli has made us laugh while making us learn. His involvement with the student body extends from sports coach to student council advisor. Mr. Cornacchioli was the motivation behind Homecoming. It is an event that he as well as we as students can be proud of. We appreciate his enthusiasm and in return we dedicate our yearbook to him.

FACULTY

ADMINISTRATION

We wish you well as you step out to prove your worth: to yourself, your family, and the wider community. Many of you will grow to assume leadership positions in society. Some will break loose from parental and community sanctions, reject all authority in our society, and consider yourselves "free," concerned only with what YOU want. Your freedom may be exhilarating until you meet others whose view of freedom is similar. I believe that you will eventually conclude that their rights stop where yours begin, and vice-versa. Furthermore, the "many" will learn soon, and the "some" will learn later, that authority very much involves responsibility for, and service to, those led. The REAL leader does not sit down to eat until he knows that there is food for all who work for him. That kind of authority DESERVES our respect.

Please keep in touch! We need your feedback in order to improve our school for the classes to follow you.

To the Members of the Class of 1975

As you complete your high school education, you will discover that the real journey of your lives has just begun. As you travel the paths you have chosen, I feel that experience will teach you that life is not a book with old age as a last chapter, but rather a series of short stories, each with its own unfolding. Through each new adventure on the way I know that you will learn that true happiness comes to those who give fully of themselves to what they believe in and to their fellowman.

We live in a time that offers unparalleled opportunities for each individual and for our nation. I am confident that you will take hold of these opportunities to achieve greater good for yourselves and for our country.

Where there is life, there is hope; and in you — the graduates of our high schools — there is the fullness of life. Your fellow citizens place their hope in you, and on their behalf I wish you every success for the future.

Neal T. Skillings
Principal Emeritus

Neal T. Skillings

To the Members of the Class of 1975,

It's a distinct privilege to have the opportunity each year to write a few words of parting to a graduating class. The very act of writing such a paragraph requires that you look back and remember with fondness the accomplishments and the good times associated with each class. Too often in the day-to-day encounters with persons we get too involved with the problems and the struggles and it takes an effort to step back and recall the good and solid relationships that have been built. I look back with considerable joy at your years at Wachusett and look ahead to even greater achievements from each of you in the years to come.

It is my hope that each of you will find the time to step back and look in retrospect at your years at Wachusett. The friends made, the lessons learned, and the relationships forged with teachers, administrators and others will, I am sure, mean even more to you as time goes by.

Be assured that we will continue to think of you and ask after your progress as you embark on yet another chapter in your life. My best to each and everyone of you — may the future be bright and your efforts be rewarded. Keep in touch.

Very truly yours,

THE GAME OF STRIFE

1. Stand at neighborhood bus stop, first player to be picked up goes first.
2. Throw die, jump off bus, shove your way through crowded halls to homeroom, count dots on dice and move forward that many spaces.
3. Player to right goes next, then proceed clockwise.
4. If a player lands on the same space as another player shake hands, come out fighting, then proceed to D-hall for disorderly conduct.
5. If sent to D-hall a player must roll doubles, pay $50 to be released, or stay there until 3:30.
6. In order to retard spoilage, play with a good sense of humor.

CREATIVE ARTS

*At harvest time
The crop is gathered
Amazing how the one small seed
Has grown into memories.*

*The basket's full
Of succulent rewards
For the toil that consumed our lives
It is all ours that we reap.*

*The harvest ends
Spring — we plant again
And attend the growth of our lives
And come fall the harvest 's in.*

To Live Quietly

To live quietly is only a mockery of living, for to live you must take life by the sorrows and wring from it a lasting joy that will stay with you till tomorrow

V. Williams

Spring
In the spring one week out of one merely month,
a funny feeling grows upon me as the moss
runs over rocks,
clinging closely.
Knowing that this erie feeling comes,
I should take action to prevent it,
But I really don't know how.
I'm lost in a milky fog that,
wraps itself around
my feeble feet,
and tediously tries,
to pull me down.

Penelope Rochette

A Memory

*She sat in fatigued silence her gentle eyes raw with age
She once spoke of life and law and hope;
Her wisdom becoming my truth
And I loved her as I loved my God.*

*She looked beyond me — engaged in a dreaded journey
I understood but others questioned*

She was waiting alone as she watched the hourglass spill its seeds of time upon a motionless heap of memories passed.

*It was through her death that I fulfilled a new truth.
With luck, one day, my wisdom will benefit another as Hers did mine.*

Carolyn Dunn

Frogs

*They rule the swamp pond life
Sitting on their green flowered islands,
They look like royal kings with green lace.
Yes, they are sly green creatures.*

Kim Lengas

Dirt

*I would love to be a dirt
It must be a blast
To sit there on the cold hard clay
And watch the worms go past.*

Steve Gross

Love Lost

How could I have loved you for so long
Without you returning it
It was like a sad song.
Me, alone without you
Is like a friendship lost among the dew.
So listen to me, my long lost friend and you will hear
A cry, so soft a cry, from one who has lost her love for Living
Please, please, I beg you just come near
And try to do a little giving.

Without End

The sea runs on without end, then the game of life begins. Some people live quickly, others take time, and our experiences create lines and Impressions so our faces, like the sand show what happens in our souls.

Charlene Jepsen

Death

*I walked upon the hill with tired feet
My eyes were blank and could not see the sun
As up I trod into the rising flame
Which engulfed my frame and gave it pause
And then upon the blazing crest
My feet were planted
And I looked down into a fragrant valley
Full of daisies and purple asters
Washing their feet in sunny brooks
I saw the tall guardians of The flowers bow with love as I passed beneath their piney boughs
On my way to the quiet calm
That was the center of the field
And there I flung my weary body down
To rest forever between the clouds
And daisy sprinkled ground.*

CROSS COUNTRY

The Wachusett Varsity Track Team had one of its most challenging seasons ever. With scores like 28-29 and 28-27, it's obvious that running isn't as easy as it looks. Bill Harwood placed fourth in the District III's at Gardner and was voted Most Valuable Player.

FIELD HOCKEY

The Girls' Varsity Field Hockey Team finished the regular season with a record of 6-1-3. The team worked and endured long practices throughout the season and, as always, became "the team to beat." Due to the talent of all the players, especially Cathy Santom, Sarah Trafton, and Kathy Warren, the team participated in the District III's.

John Gusha (Co-Capt.), Mr. Campbell, Ed Reilly (Co-Capt.)

Due to the support of many faithful fans and the extraordinary skill of the players, the Wachusett Varsity Soccer Team had its first winning season (9-8-2) since its beginning a mere 4 years ago. Faced with fierce competition and a muddy field, the Wachusett Team overcame the odds to prove they were the best.

Mr. Warren (Coach), Jim Lamoureux (Capt.), Doug French (Capt.), Tom Couture (Capt.), Mr. Jaquith (Coach).

The Winter Track Team is coed. Maybe that explains the success of the team — the boys are always chasing the girls or vice-a-versa. Regardless of the team's source of motivation it is evident from their many wins that they are definitely a dedicated team. This dedication was evident in their team spirit as well as their accumulated victories.

BOYS' BASKETBALL

Dribbling and passing down court, Wachusett wove its way through tough opposition this year. Spurred on by captain Steve Carlson, the Mountaineers shot for an exciting season with many of the games ending in close scores. Fine performances were turned in by all the seniors and underclassmen on the team.

VARSITY TEAM
